Parlor Soldiers, Hard Cases, and Persons of Ill-Repute Need Not Apply

Because you are already a part of our museum! The stories we tell at the museum are the stories of our grandparents, parents, and ourselves. It's the stories of ordinary people who toiled in the mines, worked in the stores on Main Street, traveled on steamboats...and one gentleman who even became president. These tales are joyful, sad, amusing, and inspiring.

When you become a member, you ensure that the rich cultural history of our area is safeguarded for future generations. You give yourself the opportunity to visit that history any time you want, and to share that history - your history - with others. Help us keep these precious memories alive by becoming a member today.

The Galena - Jo Daviess County Historical Society is a non-profit organization founded in 1938 for the purpose of collecting, preserving, and interpreting the history of Galena, Jo Daviess County, and the surrounding region.

The rich and unique history of Galena is unparalleled. At the Galena-Jo Daviess County Historical Society, we are committed to preserving our important past for future generations.

At the museum, you can discover...

...why the geography in this region is so unusual.

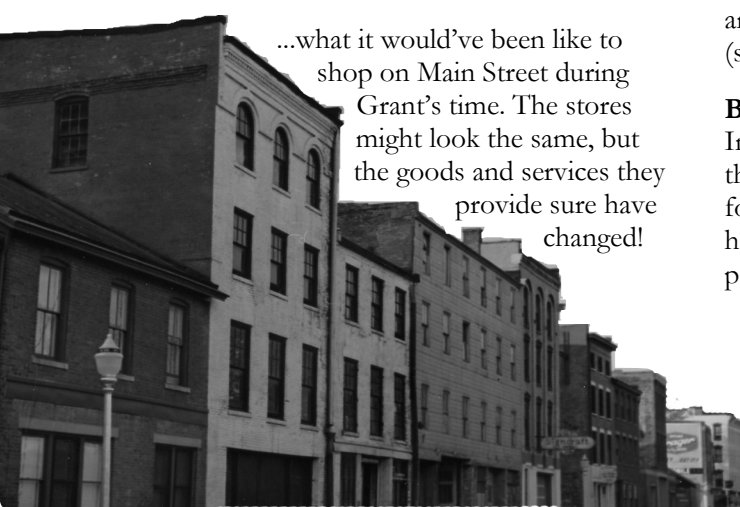

...the importance of lead mining, and even view the last open lead mine shaft in Illinois - dating back to the 1830s!

...how massive steamboats used to travel up the Galena River - and why they can no longer do so.

...what role Ulysses S. Grant and the eight other Civil War Generals from Galena played during the battle and beyond.

...our famous 9'x12' painting, Peace in Union, which depicts the end of Civil War, and use touch screen technology to learn even more about it.

...what it would've been like to shop on Main Street during Grant's time. The stores might look the same, but the goods and services they provide sure have changed!
